

LeapEd Bright Ideas

Coronavirus: a book for children

How to read with children

"If you want your children to be intelligent, read them fairy tales. If you want them to be more intelligent, read them more fairy tales." Albert Einstein

✓ The best way to get children to read, is to make it enjoyable. Reading with your child can be a positive and rewarding way for parents and children to spend some time together.

- 1 Get comfortable.
- 2 Use your voice.
- 3 Make the story exciting.
- 4 Ask questions.
- 5 Discuss what you can see in the pictures.
- 6 Be creative.
- 7 Make family reading time relaxing and enjoyable.

- ✓ International research consistently shows that parental engagement with their child's learning improves their educational outcomes. Reading together builds key language, literacy, and social skills.
- ✓ This is good news for a parents, the more you read and learn with your child, the more successful they will be.
- ✓ Reading with children will help you build bonds, improve their basic reading skills, increase their vocabulary, model good reading behaviour for the future, and increase concentration skills.

Got an idea to contribute?

enquiry@leapedservices.com

www.leapedservices.com

Join our Telegram Group

LeapEd Services

Share if it works with us: #LeapEdBrightIdeas

because every child deserves a great future