

Khazanah subsidiary wins CSR Award for education transformation

KUALA LUMPUR: Khazanah Nasional Bhd's wholly-owned subsidiary, LeapEd Services Sdn Bhd (LeapEd) recently bagged the 'CSR Leadership Award for a Social Enterprise' for its breakthrough in education transformation.

LeapEd's key contribution to the community centred on its impact in the Malaysian education system through various intervention models.

The models include the District Transformation Programme-Aman, Islamic School Enhancement Programme and Trust Schools Programme, which are aligned with the vision of the Ministry of Education, and the Malaysian Education Blueprint 2013-2025.

LeapEd managing director, Zulhaimi Othman said this award recognised the company's efforts in pushing boundaries in the education landscape. —
